“Time Busts a Move”

With the onset of the new millennium, a lot of changes occurred at BHS. Dr. Duane Alderman became the new Superintendent of the Bland County Public Schools. In addition to a new superintendent, several new teachers were added to the faculty. Mrs. Deanna Smith accepted an English position vacated by Mrs. Christine Bird. Mr. Thomas Bird replaced Mrs. Atwell in advanced math classes. At the beginning of the year, a guidance counselor position became available with the loss of Ms. Morefield who accepted a position in Mercer County. She was replaced by Mrs.

Anna Brown. Also, with the arrival of the new year, Mr. Wagoner's science lab was totally reconstructed following an unusual fire that occurred last spring.

Bland Elementary School also experienced transition and change. Mrs. Elisabeth Johnson became the new Bland County Extension Agent, due to the retirement of Betty K. Munsey. Mrs. Barrett replaced Mrs. Johnson. Also, Mrs. Moore was replaced by Mrs. Morgan. Mr. Muncy became half-day Principal at both BES and RGES.

One Last Look

The class of 2001 was a diverse grouping of young men and women. There were thirty students comprising this grade whose interests and abilities greatly varied. Forty-seven percent held part-time jobs throughout the school year, with one senior working three part-time jobs. Recognizing their strengths and weaknesses, this class understood the difficulties ahead of them with college, work and life issues. By spring, optimism and cooperation bloomed as graduation approached and preparations were made to move on to the next level of development.

Fifth graders are introduced to their instruments and are taught the differences between the unique sections of the band. Although the Beginning Band starts off with simpler music, they will all soon move on to more complicated pieces.

Elementary Sweetheart Dance

The Sweetheart Dance was held on March 10, 2000. This was a time for the elementary students to get together and polish their social skills. Each class raised money for the dance, and the class that raised the most money had a Prince, Princess, King and Queen elected. Mrs. Nelson's Class was victorious in their efforts.

Their King and Queen were Gavin Blankinship and Tonya Wright. Mrs. Scott's class raised the most money in the primary grades. The Prince and Princess were Zachary Melvin and Kelsey Dinger. The Sweetheart Dance was indeed a memorable night for all.

Sixth and Seventh Grade Prom

The prom, held on May 27, 2000, was an exciting event for the sixth and seventh graders. This was the first year elementary students were given a prom. The theme was "A Dream For Us" and the colors were light blue and silver. The students spent the evening dancing to the music played by Johnny Goins and enjoying the refreshments.

Center: Everyone enjoyed the refreshments served by Cherry Tickle.

Elementary Beauty Pageant

The 2000 Bland Elementary Beauty Pageant was held on May 19 at Wagner Auditorium. Many little beauties were adorned in their gowns as proud parents watched eagerly. As the excitement mounted there were many nervous giggles, hugs, and tears as winners were chosen. This annual event has been a profitable fund-raiser for both elementary and high school clubs.

Right: Anna Michaels is Junior Miss BES.

Elementary Music Program

For the third year in a row, Mrs. Celia Jarvis and her elementary music students put on a show for their eager parents. The children gladly sang their hearts out, but with a little something different. This year, Mrs. Jarvis recruited high school students to create backdrops for the kids. Mr. Crabtree and his Agriculture classes gladly donated his tools and time for the larger picture frames required for the background pictures. The kids loved singing with Puff the Magic Dragon and the Yellow Submarine on stage with them. The children were instantly anxious to begin planning for next year's program, with even more elaborate decorations and exciting songs.

Elementary Activities

6th graders involved in the Dare Program are taught the harmful effects of drugs, and are introduced to the importance of a drug free environment. At the end of the program, students are presented with t-shirts representative of the Dare Philosophy.

Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Radford's 6th grade class was enthusiastic before their departure for Williamsburg. This trip gave students an opportunity to visit Colonial Williamsburg. This field trip required hard work from teachers, parents, and students. The Williamsburg trip is the highlight of the 6th grade.

Each year elementary students participate in an Academic Fair. This provides students an opportunity to exhibit their work and share their interests with others. This event is held in Wagoner Auditorium. Parents, teachers, and staff enjoyed the interesting displays exhibited throughout the day.

Senior year came quickly to a close, and we wondered where the year had actually gone. We started the year in mid-August with senior pictures, schedules, and football. Before we knew it, Christmas had come and gone. The basketball season was behind us, and we were faced with decisions, decisions, decisions. Which colleges would we attend? What jobs would be accept? Where would we live, and what were our future plans? With many of these questions unanswered, graduation was upon us and our emotions were understandably a mixed bag of confusion, excitement, fear, and joy. We'd been a group since 1988-1989 and suddenly we were going our separate ways! What could be said? How could we part? The message we conveyed to one another was this:

"God be with you 'til we meet again."
