The Echo
Bland Schools K-12
Bland, Virginia
2002-2003

Bland Schools K-12 does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, disability, gender, or age in employment or in its educational programs and activities.

Changing Times

Hey, Bland K-12 students, can you believe all the changes that have happened this past year. One of the biggest changes was the combining of county sports teams. This has involved the transportation of students to Rocky Gap and Bland for practices and games. New uniforms were bought and our Bland County Bears really look great. The teams have enjoyed success in their efforts as combined teams. It was also an opportunity to form new relationships with our other county school.

Bland Schools K-12 also found changes in their classrooms. Our new teachers for 2002-2003 school year are Tiffany Carter, Stephanie Phillips, Victor Lawson, Ed Clyburn, Shelly Hartley, Kelly Wilmore and Brian Porter.

Seniors, it is about that time for us to say good-bye. Suddenly, all the lights go off and the doors shut behind us. We walk down the steps for the last time as students at Bland Schools K-12. These are the last days we will be together as a class. We wish all the seniors the best of luck and hope they never forget the memories that they shared at Bland Schools K-12.

Reach high for your goals and never give up!

Graduation 2002

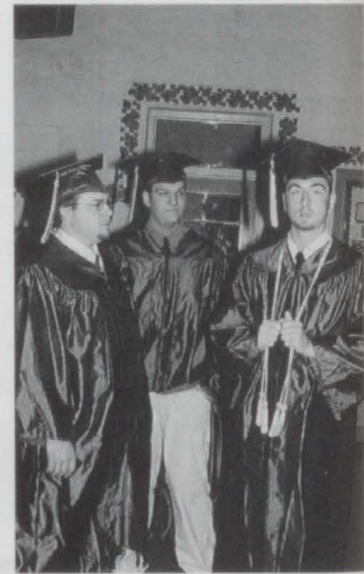

The Class of 2002 underwent many changes during their thirteen years together. Ceres and Hollybrook schools consolidated with Blond which brought about many changes for these students. They had many happy memories that they will always cherish. Two of the sadder moments were the loss of two classmates, Jonathan Hilton and Paul Starless. These boys were remembered on graduation night when the Class of 2002 placed roses on two empty chairs in their memories. Even though their lives were taken at a young age, they will always be a part of the Class of 2002.

Brandon, Seth, and Corey pose to take one last picture.

Amber receives her diploma from Mr. Davis.

D.J., Wesley, and Anthony stand in anticipation.

April Rambo gets her diploma from Mr. Hoivis.

Tears Fall As Skip Is Remembered

The students at Bland Schools K-12 will miss hearing the following words: "Hello Meaner Than I Am," "Keep the Ball in front of the runner," "Hey, Little Scott Boy;" all these things were told to us by a man who left us with a lot of memories and silly antics. He will always be in our hearts and thoughts and we thank him for giving us his time and his friendship.

Christopher

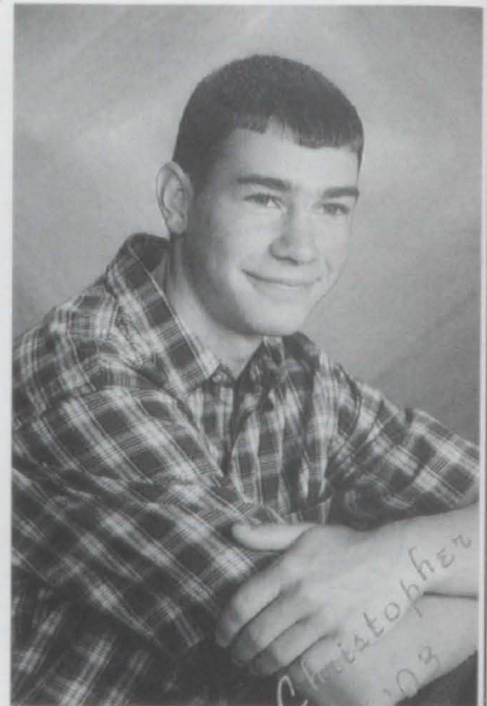

When we look at you it seems
Just like a dream.
You were our baby boy
And how you've just turned eighteen.

The way you care about others
And the kindness you have shown,
Makes you a very special person,
But this we have always known.

With a happy-go-lucky attitude
You have made it thus far without strife.
Hunting, fishing, music, and sports
Are all a big part of your life.

Words cannot express the way
We feel inside.
Our hearts are overflowing
With joy and pride.

May the Lord always be
A part of your life
Holding you closely in his hands
Our baby, Our boy, Our son
A very precious young man.
Congratulations
We Love You
Dad, Mom, Kimberly, MaMaw,
PaPaw, Granny, and Roby

In Loving Memory of Michael Aaron Wright

Sometimes, when I'm alone and lost in thought, and all the world seems too far away, you come to me as if in a dream, filling my soul with the warmth of your presence. And I smile knowing that though we cannot be together now, we're always close in thought.

This is the excitement of the year
 The graduation is growing near
 The days of coon hunting are gone
 Now is the time to move on Forestry judging none the less
 You were recognized as the best
 The outdoors, which you love
 We must learn to protect with help from the man above
 The western and carhart clothes that you wear
 Pleases you and others admire
 The Beta Club and FFA with much acclaim
