ROCKY GAP HIGH SCHOOL

Rocky Gap, Virginia

WORD

From The Editor

Sally Brewer – Editor

As time goes by, there are many people, organizations, and noteworthy occurrences in your school life which you will want to remember for many years to come. We, the Annual Staff of 1967-68, have strived to create a characteristic picture of the students of Rocky Gap High, their organizations, and events.

Our characters are molded by what we think, learn, and accomplish while in school. Let us all stand steadfast in the principles upon which our country was founded: justice, honesty, high moral standards, and service to our fellow man.

DEDICATED TO . . .

We, the members of the annual staff, wish to dedicate the 1968 ROGAHI to a man who has meant a great deal to us. From time to time, each of us has gone to him with our problems. The counsel he gave us at these times will have as much influence on us in the future as it had in the past.

In appreciation of all his earnest efforts in our behalf, we dedicate our yearbook to our Principal, Mr. Jack G. Kaylor.

'68 SENIOR CLASS WILL

- I, Deborah Harmon, will my ability of skipping school and getting excused absentees to anyone lucky enough to get by with it.
- I, Rita Bradshaw, will my position in the office to anyone who can get the duplicating machine to work.
- We, Tommy Burton and Betty Thompson, will our ability to get along and be so happy together to Junior Akers and Judy Faulkner.
- I, Keith Gore, will my ability to ball hog to Randy Brewer and Eddie Gregory, if they are lucky enough to steal the ball from their own team.
- I, Curtis Lambert, will my ability to tear up cars with hardly any effort to Marlene Looney.
- I, Roger Looney, will my ability to remain free to Miss Pauletta Browning.
- We, Helen Kitts and Dana Lambert, will all our fun at the Auditorium to Debby Bailey and Joyce Burress.
- I, Homer Taylor, will my two study halls and Phy. Ed. to some '69 Senior who is lucky enough to get them next year; and I also give my nickname "Wally" back to Ralph Kidd, who gave it to me.
- I, Brinda Stinson, will all the paper I borrowed from Diana White to anyone who needs it.
- I, Janice Wolfe, will my Economics glossary to anyone capable of interpreting it.
- I, Charlie Sarver, will my ability to talk in class and not get caught to Randy Brewer.
- I, Joe Conley, will my ability to sit under the oak tree to Wendell Kitts.
- We, Diana Burton and Vicki Umbarger, will our long talks in Phy. Ed. to anyone who can get out of exercising long enough to talk.
- I, R. D. Faulkner, bequeath to Timothy Altizer, my entire supply to Dippity-Do; and further will that he be sole recipient of my styling comb and curlers.
- I, Jack Lundy, will my tennis shoes to Ronnie Burton if he can wear them.
- I, Mary Leftwich, will my government book to Linda Tolbert.
- I, Linda Ramsey, will my scorebook to Linda Tolbert.
- I, Larry Tuggle, will my ink pen to Larry Payne, who has had it since school began.
- I, Jerry Sink, will my ability to "stick up and fight for" my Fords to Junior Akers.
- I, Danny Neal, will my ability to get into trouble to Johnny Burton.
- We, Sally Brewer and Linda Hoosier, will our mint green punch to Lynn Akers and Mary Faye Atwell; and, furthermore, will the privilege of planning and preparing the 1969 ROGAHI to Darlene Wright and anyone who isn't too busy to help her.
- I, Sandra Havens, will my ability to become Class Valedictorian to Donna Osburn.
