ROGAHI

THE ROGAHI STAFF
Presents
"A LOOK AT THE GOOD TIMES"

JANET PAULEY, Editor

In times of school
our work we do
We're taught by people trained
We do our best and they're satisfied
With the wisdom we retained.

-Allen Lane Freeman

There is much in school to offer
though small our school might be But with its trained employees
it's then that we might see That school is more than homework
it's a place with a magic key.

-Allen Lane Freeman

Day after Day it's working me down
as I'm given test after test
But with our teachers here in school
I'm sure to do my best.

-Allen Lane Freeman

We have checkers, chess and ping-pong
we have time for volleyball
But December through February
it's strictly basketball.

-Allen Lane Freeman

We have many games and things to do
we have people here to play
All we need is to recognize the stars we have today.

-Allen Lane Freeman

When in our studies
we lose our way
let's stop a second and look if we could,
and enjoy the school life
coming our way.

-Allen Lane Freeman

To every thing there is a season,
and a time to every purpose under the heaven;

A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to harvest;

POEM TO THE SENIORS

On winged feet the four years pass
And now we honor our Senior class.
Beyond these walls, this town, this state
A whole new world now lies in wait.
You've much to learn, we're often told Wisdom to gain before you're old
But tonight - before you turn and go
Your separate ways, as well we know,
Enjoy this place, these hours, this school
In memory they'll return to you.

. . . THE JUNIOR CLASS

IF YOU LEAVE ME NOW

If you leave me now
You take away the biggest part of me.
Oh, no, Baby please don't go.
And if you leave me now
You take away the very heart of me.
Oh, no, Baby please don't go.
Oh, girl, I just want you to stay.
A love like ours is love that's hard to find,
How could we let it slip away?
We've come too far to leave it all behind,
How could we end it up this way?
When tomorrow comes and we both feel better
The feeling's said to fade.
If you leave me now.
If you leave me now
You take away the biggest part of me,
Oh, no, Baby please don't go.
Oh, girl, I've got to have you by my side.
If you leave me now.

THE GARDENER

In memory of Jamie Leigh Ratliff, January 7, 1978

Have you strolled along a garden path,
to view with pleasure the flowers there,
whose radiant beauty shimmers thru
the warm and fragrant air?

Have you seen them, large and small,
some with mantled head and hood,
crowned in glory all their own
as if touched by God they stood.

No two of these wonders are the same yellow, red, gold and brown,
just like we people you see,
for we too are by God crowned.

Touched with His brush we stand
some little, some big or tall, Verdun hued indeed to show,
that God the gardener loves us all.

So why do we wonder when,
we pass this old familiar way,
that one flower has been moved,
to honor the house in God's bouquet?

For, sure enough dear friends you see,
God too gardens a great place,
touching each with tender love
transplanting us to live in eternal grace.

And tho this pretty flower has gone,
to bloom anew in this other land,
we who grow by this path will wait,
until we too are chosen by His hand.

Jack T. Day

THE ROSE STILL GROWS BEYOND THE WALL

Near a shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.

As it grew and blossomed fair and tall,
Slowly rising to loftier height,
It came to a crevice in the wall,
Through which there shone a beam of light.

Onward it crept with added strength,
With never a thought of fear or pride.
It followed the light through the crevice's length
And unfolded itself on the other side.

The light, the dew, the broadening view
Were found the same as they were before;
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve,
And make our courage faint or fail?
Nay! Let us faith and hope receive:
The rose still grows beyond the wall.

Scattering fragrance far and wide,
Just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will for ever more.
